9b. Please describe your Takeback program.

Wacom Technology Corporation has implemented a free to consumer mail-in take back program that can be accessed via the web at www.wacom.com/ewaste or 1-800-922-6613. The toll free number directs the customer to Wacom's Customer Care Center where a UPS shipping label is created and emailed (or otherwise sent) to the customer. The web access is fully automated with a connection to UPS that can print a UPS shipping label.

Consumers who wish to recycle their Wacom branded products can access the returns program through Wacom's website through the following steps:

1. Access the Wacom Technology Corporation's recycle web page - (www.wacom.com/ewaste),
2. Select the state in which they reside (in this case Michigan),
3. Wacom's mail back program link with UPS will open,
4. Once at the UPS site the user will:
 - a. complete a form that creates a shipping label that can be printed,
 - b. be directed to the closest shipping locations, and
 - c. learn how to prepare the product for proper shipping.

Wacom begins tracking the product once the customer completes the shipping label. The shipping destination is the closest recycling facility of one of the vendors Wacom has contracted with to handle recycling under the returns program. All products are tracked to the recycling facility at which time the facility is responsible for assuring the product is recycled/reused in a manner that complies with all local and federal laws and regulations including prohibition against disposal in landfills.

Wacom receives monthly reports from the recyclers concerning the weight of products recycled and certification of proper handling of all materials received.

Wacom publicizes reuse and recycle of its products with the following methods:

- via inserts in its products packaging,
- its website, and
- toll-free number.
